- ☐ Obtain and renew the work permit and the residence permit, and pay the LMRA fees.
- ☐ Register the worker with the General Organisation for Social Insurance (GOSI) and pay the employer's share, including occupational injury cover.
- ☐ Provide medical treatment and the annual medical check where required, at the employer's cost.
- ☐ Provide suitable accommodation and transport, or the allowances stated in clause 3.
- ☐ Not charge the worker any recruitment, permit, medical, insurance or ticket fee, and not keep the passport or CPR card.
- ☐ Pay the return air ticket at the end of the contract and settle the end-of-service benefit before the worker leaves Bahrain.

6. OBLIGATIONS OF THE WORKER

التزامات العامل

- ☐ Perform the work personally and diligently during the agreed hours and obey lawful instructions.
- ☐ Comply with the occupational safety and health rules and use the protective equipment provided.
- ☐ Work only for the employer and in the occupation stated in the permit.
- ☐ Respect the laws of Bahrain, the employer's property and the privacy of colleagues and residents.

7. TERMINATION AND END OF SERVICE

إنهاء العقد ومكافأة نهاية الخدمة

Either party may terminate a contract of unlimited duration by giving one month's written notice after three months' service, or three months' notice where the worker has more than five years' service (article 116). The probation period may not exceed three months. On termination the worker is entitled to the end-of-service benefit of one month's wage for each year of service, calculated on the last wage, and to payment for unused leave, the return ticket and the experience certificate (article 116 and the end-of-service rules).
