The LMRA fees are calculated per worker and per year and are payable before the permit is issued. A discounted or pro-rated fee may apply where the permit is issued for less than a year or where the worker is under 18 or over 60. The employer may not deduct any part of these fees from the worker's wages, and may not make the worker's hiring conditional on the worker paying any part of them.

5. EMPLOYER DECLARATION

- ☐ The vacancy was advertised in accordance with the LMRA rules and no suitable Bahraini candidate was available.
- ☐ The wages, hours and leave offered are not less than those required by Law No. 36 of 2012 and the sector rules, and match the contract lodged with the LMRA.
- ☐ The employer alone pays the permit fee, the administration fee and the advertisement fee, and charges nothing to the worker for recruitment, medical, insurance or travel.
- ☐ Suitable accommodation is available on arrival and the address has been declared to the LMRA.
- ☐ The worker will be registered with GOSI and covered by health insurance from the first day.
- ☐ The employer will not retain the worker's passport or CPR card, and will hand over all documents on issue.
- ☐ The employer has read the anti-trafficking rules and will report any suspicion of forced labour or fee-charging to the LMRA.
