Record of the medical fitness examination that every applicant for a Bahraini work permit must pass, of the application for the CPR (Central Population Register) card, and of the employer's undertaking to repatriate the worker at its own cost when the permit ends. The examination is arranged by the employer at an approved health centre, is paid for by the employer, and includes the tests required by the LMRA — blood, urine, chest X-ray, and the communicable disease screening set by the Ministry of Health.

4. HEALTH INSURANCE AND CARE

HEALTH INSURER	POLICY NO.	COVER PER YEAR (BHD)	PANEL CLINIC

The employer provides health insurance covering the worker for the duration of the permit and pays for treatment of illness or injury connected with the work. Where the worker is found with a condition that requires treatment before the permit can be issued, the employer arranges and pays for that treatment; where the worker is certified unfit, the employer does not deploy the worker and arranges the return journey at its own expense.

5. REPATRIATION UNDERTAKING

تعهد إعادة العامل

The employer undertakes to return the worker to the country of origin at its own cost within 30 days of the expiry, cancellation or revocation of the work permit, or immediately where the worker is deported or certified unfit. The undertaking covers the air ticket, the airport levy, the CPR cancellation fee, any accrued wages and leave pay, and the cost of an escort where the worker is ill. The employer may not recover these costs from the worker or set them off against wages, and may not hold the worker's passport as security.
