This Wakala authorises a licensed Saudi recruitment office or company to act for the employer before the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Development (HRSD), the Qiwa and Musaned platforms, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the embassy of the sending country, for the recruitment of the workers described below. The authorisation is issued electronically through the employer's account and is valid only for the workers and the period stated. It does not transfer the employer's obligations under the Labour Law: the employer remains the sole sponsor and the person liable for wages, accommodation, medical care and the return ticket.

The agent is authorised to: obtain the visa block from the HRSD electronic system and the Qiwa contract; submit and collect the recruitment visa and the work authorisation; complete the Musaned contract and the wage protection declarations; coordinate the medical examination at a GCC-approved centre (GAMCA/Wafid) in the sending country; arrange the certificate of good conduct, the fingerprinting and the vaccine certificate; lodge the certified employment contract with the embassy; and collect the worker's documents for travel.

The agent is not authorised to receive the worker's wages, retain the worker's passport or Iqama after arrival, change the occupation or the employer, charge the worker any recruitment fee, or sign any document on the employer's behalf that creates a financial obligation above SAR 10,000 without prior written approval.

The fee is paid by the employer and is not recovered from the worker. Any amount charged to the worker — whether as recruitment fee, visa fee, medical fee, ticket or 'service charge' — is unlawful under the recruitment regulations and the anti-trafficking law, and is a ground for cancelling the office's licence and for a complaint to the HRSD. The employer may withhold the final instalment until the worker has arrived and signed the contract.
